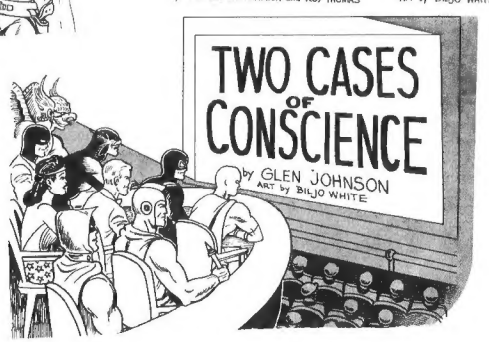
THE FIRST GREAT DAYS OF BLACKHAWK



ADVERTISING RATES FOR THE ROCKET'S BLAST - COMICOLLECTOR

REGULAR CLASSIFIED ADS: All of these type ads will be reduced to 1/3 their size. Therefore, a full page ad (8½ x 11) would be about 1/3 of a page when printed. Nothing will be left out, the type size will just be reduced. All ads of this type should be submitted typed (if possible) on WHITE paper only. Type only on a black ribbon that is not worn out, because if it is too light, it will reproduce poorly. Observe normal margins. The rate for these is $5.25 per page. We must reserve the write to reassemble (only, if necessary) your ads of this type to fill out the page. For smaller ads, the rate is 10¢ per line (7 inch typed line).

SPECIAL 25% CLASSIFIED ADS: THese 25% ads are reduced to only 1/2 their size, instead of 1/3. Therefore, a full page ad (8½ x 11) would be about a half page when printed up. The rate for this type is $7.50 per page. Submit as above. And again we reserve the right to reassamble (only if necessary).

SPECIAL CLASSIFIED ADS: These are printed as is. Therefore if you submit a full page (8½ x 11), it will be 8½ x 11 when printed up. Submit in the same manner as above. -$14.00 per page.

HERE IS AN IMPORTANT WAY YOU CAN SAVE MONEY ON YOUR RB&CC ADVERTISING:
SAY, FOR INSTANCE, YOU HAVE A THREE PAGE AD THAT YOU WANT TO RUN AT THE "REGULAR" RATE OF $5.25 PER PAGE. THAT WOULD COST YOU A TOTAL OF $15.75. HOWEVER, HERE IS HOW YOU COULD RUN IT FOR ONLY $14.00. YOUR THREE PAGE AD RUN "REGULAR" WOULD COME OUT 8½ x 11 WHEN PRINTED UP. THEREFORE, IF YOU SUBMIT YOUR AD ALREADY LAYED OUT AND TYPED UP ON A SHEET 13½ INCHES WIDE AND 17½ INCHES LONG (WHICH WILL BE REDUCED DOWN TO 8½ x 11), YOU CAN RUN IT AT THE "SPECIAL" RATE OF $14.00 AND SAVE $1.75. YOU "MAKE UP SHEETS" CAN BE MADE BY USING CELLOPHANE TAPE AND REGULAR WHITE PAPER, TAPING THEM SO THAT THEY FIT THE MEASUREMENTS. THEN YOU CAN TYPE UP YOUR AD ON OTHER PAPER AND GLUE IT ON THE MAKE UP SHEET AND MAKE YOUR OWN LAYOUT. THIS ENABLES YOU TO MAKE YOUR OWN LAYOUT, WHICH WILL BE PRINTED JUST AS YOU SUBMIT IT, PROVIDING YOU FOLLOW THE INSTRUCTIONS. REMEMBER, ALWAYS USE A GOOD DARK RIBBON.
ALSO, IF YOU ARE GOING TO SUBMIT A TWO PAGE AD AT THE "25%" RATE (TWO PAGES AT 25% WILL COME OUT 8½ x 11 WHEN PRINTED), YOU CAN SAVE THIS WAY TOO. TWO PAGES SUBMITTED SEPARATELY AT THE "25%" RATE WOULD COST YOU $15.00. BUT IF YOU SUBMIT IT ALREADY LAYED OUT ON A SHEET 12 INCHES WIDE BY 15½ INCHES LONG, YOUR COST IS, AGAIN, ONLY $14.00--A SAVINGS OF $1.00.
YOU DISPLAY ADVERTISERS CAN MAKE UP YOUR LAYOUTS TOO USING THE ABOVING MEASUREMENTS, DEPENDING ON HOW MUCH YOU WANT IT REDUCED IN SIZE

DISPLAY ADS: THESE ARE 25¢ per page more and are usually given better locations than classified.
REGULAR DISPLAY (reduced to 1/3 its size) $5.50 per page
25% DISPLAY (reduced to 1/2 its size) $7.75 per page.
SPECIAL DISPLAY (printed as is) $14.25 per page.

When submitting any of the above ads, be sure to specify; "REGULAR", "25%", or "SPECIAL". FULL payment must accompany all ads. Any ads received after any given deadline will be run in the following issue WITHOUT EXCEPTION !!

THE END OF AN ERA

THIS IS THE ONE ALL OF YOU E.C. FAN-ANTICS HAVE BEEN WAITING FOR !!

Bill Parente takes an indepth look at the old E.C. line. He explores and discusses its' faults and weaknesses, but more importantly, he tells why E.C. has never been matched for pure quality. Along with Bill's fine article, you'll see reproductions of E.C. art by Wood, Joe Orlando, Williamson, Krenkel, and Davis, PLUS a photo of Wally Wood. To top it off, we managed to have pro artist John Fantucchio draw a beautiful 7-color front cover for this issue, and believe me, it is in the TRUE EC tradition. And if that wasn't enough, we also have a full color back cover by one of fandoms best artists (and this is no idle statement) Buddy Saunders.

THE ROCKET'S BLAST SPECIAL #7 is printed photo-offset throughout with professional wrap-around binding and all copies will be mailed flat in a heavy envelope. Price: 75¢ per copy.

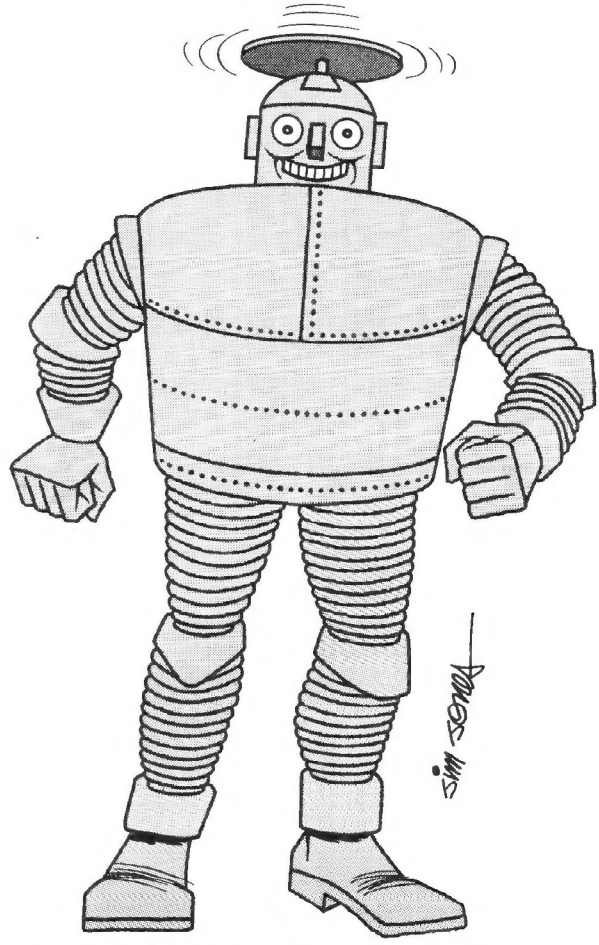
A MAN OF STEEL!

One of the first fictional STEEL MEN I remember seeing was BOZO the robot. BOZO'S monthly adventures appeared in the pages of the old SMASH COMICS. In each issue, Hugh Hazzard would "turn on" BOZO !

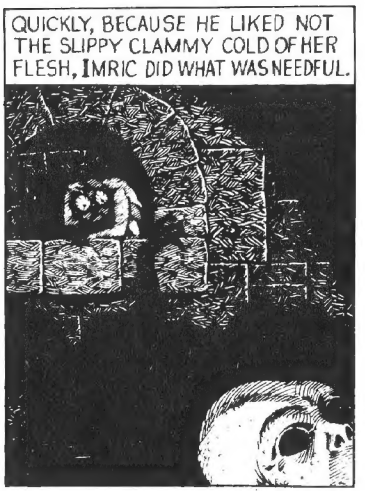
Like an automobile, BOZO was an inanimate machine. He was operated or driven by his creator, Hugh Hazzard. Through a large, hinged door Hugh would climb inside the robot. Then, Hazzard would press some buttons; push a lever or two; twist a number of knobs and they flew off to another adventure.

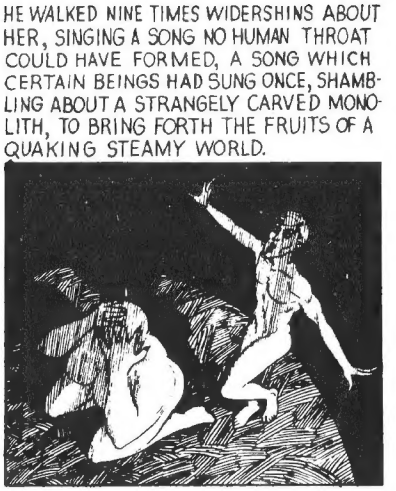
BOZO had a rotating, metallic disc mounted on a drive shaft that protruded from the top of his steel head. When the spinning, rotor disc revved up to the proper speed, BOZO had the power of FLIGHT ! Oh, well, aerodynamically speaking, the bumble-bee shouldn't be able to fly either.

It will be hard for me to ever forget those round staring eyes; the perpetual idiotic grin and that ridiculous spinning flight disc of good ole' BOZO !

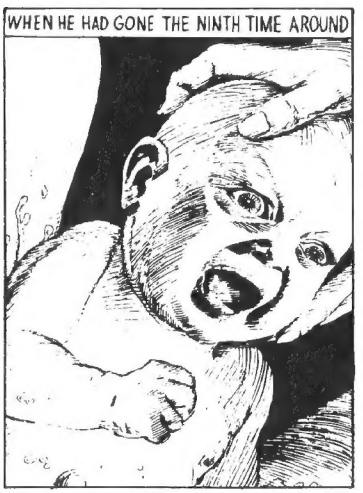


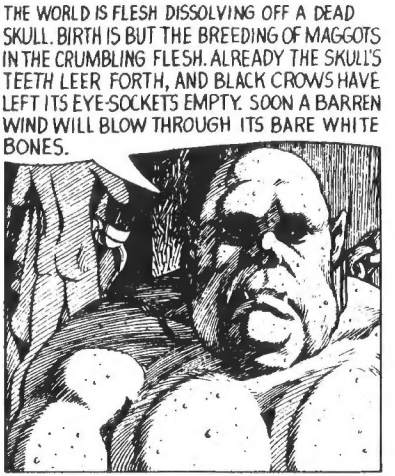
BOZO the robot





HE WALKED NINE TIMES WIDERSHINS ABOUT HER, SINGING A SONG NO HUMAN THROAT COULD HAVE FORMED, A SONG WHICH CERTAIN BEINGS HAD SUNG ONCE, SHAMBLING ABOUT A STRANGELY CARVED MONOLITH, TO BRING FORTH THE FRUITS OF A QUAKING STEAMY WORLD.





THE WORLD IS FLESH DISSOLVING OFF A DEAD SKULL. BIRTH IS BUT THE BREEDING OF MAGGOTS IN THE CRUMBLING FLESH. ALREADY THE SKULL'S TEETH LEER FORTH, AND BLACK CROWS HAVE LEFT ITS EYE-SOCKETS EMPTY. SOON A BARREN WIND WILL BLOW THROUGH ITS BARE WHITE BONES.

ADAM STRANGE - THE THINKING MAN'S SUPER HERO

The Nov.-Dec., 1958 issue of Showcase (No. 17, "Adventures On Other Worlds"), marked the introduction of a non-super super hero who was destined to carry a large share of the load National Periodicals was delivering to comic book fans from the transitional 1950's to the promising 1960's. That former decade was indeed a period when costumed super heroes were laid to rest and the horror, mystery and suspense themes ran rampant on a deadly course which was ultimately controlled and decimated by the creation of the Comics Code Authority. With World War II over, the heroes of the first "golden age" found themselves occupied with docile adventures not much above the bank robbery-ship-at-sea-in-distress level of excitement. Thus their popularity waned and it seemed as though this group would never again reach its former heights.

Adam Strange helped change all this. After three Showcase tryouts, he started a six year career in Mystery In Space and was subsquently assured of success by virtue of fact that the team producing him during most of his run was without peers. The magnificant Gardner Fox did the stories; and the award winning Carmine Infantino the art. His origin was quite plausible; his powers were only the ability to think fast and accurately; his weapons ordinary to his alien world. Having been teleported 25 trillion miles from Earth to the third planet of the star-sun system Alpha Centauri by means of a "zeta beam", he became, as the splash pages of his stories put it, "Earth's First Space Traveler". This zeta beam was the invention of Sardath, Rann's chief scientist, who sought communication with worlds similar in characteristics to his own. Sent out intermittently years before, these signals were transformed into teleportational beams upon entering Earth's radiation belt. Whisking Adam and sometimes inanimate objects through the time-space continuum from Earth to Rann in microseconds, he was almost always greeted by Alanna, Sardath's daughter, who shared his adventures, as he proved to be the "Champion Of Champions" time and again. It was never clear as to how he came to the familiar red, orange and white uniform he wore, other than his donning it in a wrecked space ship in his Showcase initial tryout. It somewhat resembled the costume of a similar predecessor, Capt. Comet of early Strange Adventures fame; and was highlighted by a hood helmet with a large fin on top.

The covers of Mystery In Space were excellent, with several becoming award winners or nominees. Particularly outstanding were No. 75, "The Planet That Came To A Standstill", No. 82, "World War On Earth - And Rann", and No. 90, "Planets In Peril". In every story the theme was basically the same. Arriving at some pre-designated spot somewhere in the Pacific, and at the precise moment of impact, Adam entered the zeta beam and seemed to always arrive in time for Alanna to greet him with news of an impending or prevailing planet shaking crises. Studying his foes modus apperandi, taking into account the aspects of the natural and man made surroundings, Adam "thought out" the solution, and by means of almost mechanical physical effort, proved triumph ant. Adam admitted that this was his only ability to the Justice League in issue No. 75; and at this moment of truth, enabled his followers to realize that he could never become a JLA member, despite his nomination by the Flash in JLA No. 4. His manner and methods in solving these space "whodunnits" were a refreshing approach in the super hero field.

With the introduction of Hawkman (who shared MIS with Adam from No. 87 to 90, and had the cover for two issues), the Atom and others, National Periodicals unjustly felt that he had served his purpose. The second "golden age" of super heroes was now in full swing, and so his demise started with issue No. 92. Space Ranger moved over from Tales Of The Unexpected, replaced Adam on several covers, and joined his decendant in several adventures (MIS No. 94, "Riddle Of Two Solar Systems" and No. 98, "The Wizard Of The Cosmos"). Lee Elias, a fair artist who did the Cave Carson series, took over the art, and eliminated the famous hood helment. To many of his faithful, this was an unspeakable act bordering on denudation and akin to the stripping of rank, insignia and medals of a soldier. His last appearance was in MIS No. 102, being absent from No. 101. Ultra, the Multi-Aliend became the star for the remainder of this magazines life, some 8 more issues. Perhaps it was fitting that with the passing of Adam Strange, the magazine he highlighted should shortly follow him.

Adam Strange is not quite gone and forgotten. He made a two issue guest appearance in Hawkman (Nos. 18 and 19). By means of a "nucleometer", the temporary stay powers of the zeta beam were eliminated; as were the effects of the gamma metal vibrations inflicted on him by Kanjar Ro in the JLA adventure, which limited his stay on Rann to one year. Perhaps we will see more of him as other super heroes visit his galactic neighborhood in their own magazines. To those of us who were confirmed readers, the hope is that this space adventurer with the Sherlock Holmes mind will return in the glorious color, art and plots that made him the thinking man's super hero.....

HOWARD P. SIEGEL

EDITOR'S NOTE: I thought that you readers would be interested in how Mr. Siegel became "baptized" into fandom, so I'll give you part of his letter of explanation: "As the art director and product development manager of a toy manufacturing company, my re-introduction to comic books and super-heroes came as a necessity. My company subscribed to several Batman licenses with the advent of his TV series, and followed with a group of Marvel Comic Group items. Thus my research into these comic characters led to a present collection of some 1500 magazines; and other fanzine material, including five of your special editions."

Thanks for the above article, Howard. It is my opinion that a few of the Adam Strange-Carmine Infantino covers go virtually unmatched today, with a very few exceptions. Adam Strange (when Infantino and Fox were doing him) rates my top ten favorites of all time, which includes some great characters.

THE ODDITY PAGE

By Raymond Miller

WITH "FLASHBACKS"

From Steve Rasnic come these oddities: In the Atomic Man story for HEADLINE COMICS #17, Feb. 1946, page 1, lower right panel, "King" Maline is shown viewing himself in a mirror. Although he is presently smoking a cigar, it doesn't show up in the mirror At the time when Atomic Man was covered featured on HEADLINE #17-19, he was shown with a red helmet and blue shirt on the cover. However, in the stories he wore an orange and yellow shirt and a grayish-purple helmet. Also, on the cover of #17 they showed him wearing yellow metal wrist-bands, which he never had. Another oddity; the Superman story in WORLDS FINEST #31 shows Superman's cape emblem missing from the splash page and from four inside panels.

Neil Neches has two. The cover of CAPT. AMERICA 67 shows Golden Girl tied up and C.A. about to rescue her. But this isn't in any story inside. The cover of #68 is the same thing. No story inside has anything to do with the cover. (As I've mentioned before, many comics of the 40's used their cover as a showcase and never connected it with the inside contents.)

John Sulak; In Batman 173 a crime reporter named Lake used an alter role to get scoops. He wore a disguise and was known as Kale. He also was a third person, a costumed criminal. 7 months later, The Enforcers were introduced at Marvel. Their leader was F.Foswell in a disguise as a costumed villain. Foswell later became a crime reporter and used the disguise of PATCH to get scoops

Gary Duncan: In SUPER comics FANTASTIC ADVENTURES #10, 1963, turn to the first page and it seems as if the publisher left out a page, or they forgot to write a beginning for the story. However, if you turn to the last page in this issue, you will find the "first" page to the story entitled "High Death." NOW FOR A FLASH BACK: "CAPT. MARVEL & THE MONSTER SOCIETY OF EVIL!"

CAPTAIN MARVEL and
The MONSTER SOCIETY OF EVIL

This,the greatest of all Captain Marvel serials,appeared in CAPTAIN MARVEL ADVENTURES #22 thru #46 and bitted Capt. Marvel againist that evil worm,MR.MIND.There were 25 chapters in this world famous serial which was almost to long as no one was taking MR.MIND seriously anymore.Most of the art was by C.C.Beck who was aided by a staff of inkers and background artist who was the backbone of the art department at Fawcett.Most of Fawcetts art in 1942-45 came from either the Jack Binder or C.C.Beck art shops and for the most part a name artist only drew the main characters with lesser known artists doing backgrounds etc.And I might add some of these guys were quite good.MR.MIND was invented by Otto Binder and with the help of Editor Wendell Crowley and artist Charles Clarence Beck they came up with lowest form of being,a worm.

Infact for the first 5 or 6 chapters MR MIND was only a voice giving orders to such famous villains as CAPT.NAZI,IBAC, NIPPO and SIVANA.In the end MR. MIND met his end in the electric chair.

The following is the check list of the chapter titles and the number of the issues and date the MONSTER SOCIETY OF EVIL appeared in.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Before I forget again, be sure to send your comic book oddities to Raymond Miller at his new address; R.D. #1, Box 131-C, Creekside, Pa. 15732. Incidently, the circulation of this issue of the RB&CC will be [redacted] 1925 !

Dear G.B.,
Thanks earnestly for a lot of hard and high quality work!! I mean on your fan publications,of course. I enjoyed RB&CC #53 very much. The cover was very interesting. Mr Fantucchio has an interesting style, along with considerable talent. I was wondering what technique he used to do your cover for issue ## 53. I guess it was oils, though I'm probably wrong. Still, it's the only thing I can think of that could accomplish such art.

VALIDAR WYNDHEIM

Dear G.B.,
I'd like to enter a praiseworthy note for the RB&CC 53. Although I am a fairly novice reader of your magazine (my first issue being #48), I enjoyed this issue especially. The cover was exceptionally good, the Shadow is one of my old favorites,anyway. By the way, it seems that since ish 51, the RB&CChas metamorphosed slightly. I'm not one to complain as photo-offset throught makes for a neater appearence, with all the ads facing the same way, and cuts down on loose and mis-sized pages. Also, I like the idea of printing those newspaper articles, and an occasional feature story, as most of them are pretty interesting. I hope in the future that quality will continue to shine brighter than quantity. Speaking of quality, it seems to have fallen off in the comics that grace the newsstands nowadays. Don't get me wrong, I'm not condemning the comic book of today, I'm merely trying to show the contrast between the comics we read today, and the comics we may have read a few years ago. The modern comic book seems to have taken on a stamp of sophistication and professionalism. This isn't true in all cases,mind you, but try comparing a newsstand-fresh issue of THE FANTASTIC FOUR; for instance, to an early issue from 1961 or 1962; quite a difference, isn't there? Some fans may not agree with me, but I'd much rather spend an afternoon browsing thru a dozen or so "oldies", then I would a carton of new issues. However, I can be found each month diligently persuing the comic rack in my local newstand. I usually leave with a huge wad of the comics I buy every month and a few more which I didn't count on buying, anyway. It shrinks the bankroll, but brightens the imagination, so to speak. I may be a dreamer, but pure enjoyment to me means steal back a few years into the past, to watch the Flash being reborn, or to see the radioactive spider sink his shiny little fangs into Peter Parker, or even to thrill at the sight of Uncle Scrooge greedily cavorting thru his money bin. I doubt if I will ever tire from gazing at those worn panels, and I'm sure there are fans who will agree with me. (EDITOR: Count me in.)

Dear G.B.,
Help! In the RB&CC #54's lettercol, you stated that the 7th issue of FLASH GORDON was an sorry mess. I didn't know there was a 7th issue! The last issue on the stands around here was #3! Is this distribution mixxxxxxxx problem all over or just in my area? (EDITOR: All over.)

The text and art in RB&CC SPECIAL #2 was great, what there was of it, however only 12 pages. If Roy Thomas can charge 60¢ for 40 pages, couldn't you charge 75¢ for 20 pages? (EDITOR: It wouldn't make any difference if Roy Thomas or Joe Glow charge 10 cents for 100 pages, I still have to charge my own price. It is highly impractical to print up less than 2,000 copies anymore. And to print that many ties up an awful lot of money--anywhere from 4 to $750.00--depending on the individual zine. And to sell that many copies of anything except RB&CC takes anywhere from 18 months to 3 years. Therefore I cannot afford to tie up so much money for so long and sell a book for a dime or 15¢ profit. I would go broke if I did. And I am sure a lot of fans are glad that I print enough copies so that I have back issues available for new fans. Think about this; I easily have over $4,500.00 of hard earned money tied up in back issues.)

The FANDOM ANNUAL #1 was very well done and worth the $2.25.w (EDITOR: I have yet to find anyone who did not think it was.) First thing: front cover--very, very well done! Who's idea was it not to color John's illo? (his) Back cover, good, very good, but the flesh colors look as if the characters have measles. I can't find one thing I like more than the others. They were all the best. But the "bestest" (for me) were the reproductions (I'm crazy about cover repros). Since I can't find anything wrong with this zine, I'll go on to my next subject. Oh yes, I hope that the fandom Annual will really be an ANNUAL.

Since you've proven your talent for "quality" zines, how about bringing back THE GOLDEN AGE! (How's that for a phrase) With ALTER EGO gone, there's a need for a "quality article zine and you can do. Get Biljo White, Ronn Foss, Jim Jones, Fred Patten, Glen Johnson, and Guy Lillian. Or better yet, talk to Roy Thomas about AE and find out exactly what he's going to do, and if he can't find time, and you both agree, publish AE yourself. (EDITOR: You talk as if all I have to do is wave a magic wand and all those people mx you mentioned will jump at the chance to contribute. Actually, I have quite a bitx of good material on hand that I do not have room for in the RB&CC. This material would nearly fill up another issue of RBX THE GOLDEN AGE. But there is a problem of finding the time to do laouts, typing, gettings the titles made up, finding room to store another 2,000 issues. Come to think of it though, John Fantucchio mentioned he would like to do the complete layout work for one of my zines. Maybe he'd like to tackle GODDEN AGE #3? Actually, I would not mind publishing THE GOLDEN AGE (or AE) on a regular basis, if I was sure I could get sufficient quality material and find a good editor who would handle gathering of material, layouts, typing up the pages, etc. Any volunteers?)

Now don't get me wrong! It may seem that I think you're doning everything wrong but actually I've just stated things that have at least irritated me, and since you've done so many things, these are just a drop in the bucket. Besides, what good is a rave letter anyway?

ROBERT WILLIAMS

Dear G.B.,
To answer Terry Hughes letter in RB&CC #53, and in defense of Capt. Marvel, I just want to say that he was meant to be a humorous hero, and not strictly serious. Superman was started in a serious vein and that is why when they tried to inject humor into his stories, he fell flat on his face. Possibly, if they had taken the humor out of Marvel and made him serious, the same thing would have happened to him. My personal opinion is Capt. Marvel was one of the greatest super heroes. It's a fact that the old CAPTAIN MARVEL COMICS are worth just as much as the old Superman books. One more thing, RB&CC is the greatest. Keep up the good work.

CARL HOPKINS

Dear G.B.,
For some time now I have wondered what the abbreviation S.F.C.A. stands for. I don't recall seeing it explained anyplace and the only thing I can think of that it might mean is the Science Fiction and Comic Association. Am I right, or at least close? (EDITOR: You hit it right on the button).

Orders are now being taken for the FRANK FRAZETTA ART FOLIO, a specially printed envelope full of 16 large (about 15 x 10 inches) line drawings by the incredible, fantastic and frantic Frank Frazetta. Originally intended as illustrations for Edgar Rice Burroughs first two Pellucidar stories, these scenes of man and beast in prehistoric splendor are among the finest Frazetta pieces in the country. And... almost half of these illustrations (7) have never been reproduced anywhere else in any form whatsoever. This is an art folio that they'll be talking about for years to come... and you'll be proud to own one. Just send $7 (that's less than 50¢ per drawing) and your FRANK FRAZETTA ART FOLIO will be mailed to you post paid in January, 1968.

Warning: Order now to avoid dissappointment... supplies are limited.

GORDON FLAGG JR. 1906 CLAIRMONT TER. ATLANTA,GEORGIA 30329 I'd like to apologize to all of you who ordered my price list,only to receive it over a month late. This was the fault of the printer,and I have taken steps to insure that it will not occur again. My brand new price list should be ready by the time this is published; it contains hundreds of DC's, MARVELs,CHARLTONs,GOLD KEYs,KINGs,TOWERs,ARCHIEs,HARVEYs,and typing errors. If you ordered from my last list,you'll receive this new list free; the rest of you will have to send a 5¢ stamp for it. Lest I forget,if any of you have any EC SF comics,Harvey Kurtzman items such as issues of MAD,HELP,and THUMP,Doc Savage and Shadow pulps,a copy of FANTASTIC FOUR #1,or Golden Age comics for sale at reasonable (like cheap!) prices,please let me know.... I'm willing to trade items from my list for them,and maybe even pay cash!

That's about ten lines at ten cents a line....I think the dollar.I'm enclosing should cover it.....

My new MEMORY LANE store is going into the mailorder business. Why not drop me a post card listing your wants. If I have what you need, I'll set it aside and drop you a postcard listing condition and price. If you don't order within two weeks, the items will be put back in stock.

A simple system that should work. Let's hear from you.

MARVEL MIRROR 2 IS NOW! ON SALE!

Yes, The Mad World of Marveldom has mutated into Marvel Mirror, bringing no less than SIX changes in the size! First is the much-needed title change! Second is a format change which will be able to bring you twice as much material printed by photo-offset for the same price. Third, and most important, is the change in editorial policy. Each issue will bring more serious constructive criticism to Stan Lee & Co. and which will allow our readers to participate in round-table discussions on this controversial subject in the field of Marvel fanzines! The second issue promises to be even better, and contains the following material of interest to every Marvel reader:

"Personality Analysis: Hercules," the second in the much-acclaimed new series with a psychological slant! The PA on the Beast in our first issue brought rave reviews--and this one's even better!

"Marvel's Back Pages," a new column dealing with the little-discussed ATLAS titles of the early 1950's. This installment deals with Caught #5, an Atlas crime comic of 1951.

"The Fifth Column," a series of speculation and commentary, which brings up many interesting new points and re-makes a few old ones.

"Asgard," a poem to the fabled Realm.

Truly fantastic artwork--Ellis's of Hercules, Ant-Man, Galactus, and other Marvel creations.

PLUS: Fanzine reviews, bringing to light many little-known yet excellent zines; editorial gab galore; "Picks, Quips, & Comments," our new letter column; and several important news items.

NEW YEAR COMICS SALE OF EXCELLENT MATERIAL from RICH HAUSER, 226 DANIELS HALL, 1010 W. Green Street; URBANA, ILL. 61801
The following terms will help you understand my abbreviations: M-Mint, N-near ; F-Fine, VG-very good, G-good, Fa.-fair, P-poor. And all items are of course guaranteed to the buyer's satisfaction as advertised. Payment with order , please, and prompt service is promised from this end.

FIRST OFF--- Sets or groups of Comics Offered Once and for All:
HIGHLIGHTED BY--- an almost complete Marvel group in very sharp condition, offered by run as follows. I've finally brought these goodies out into light of day, as they've been sealed airtight and in boxes to keep them in nice shape. I have two sets, one of which I'll keep, and the duplicates are in every way as beautiful. Generally all in LIKE NEW or NEAR LIKE NEW shape, with only one or two exceptions, and these less important #'s which are at least FINE. FANTASTIC FOUR 1-60 is a delectable run of this greatest of all recent comics. Compared to Howard Rogofsky's _____ price(supply your own adjective) of $158.00 smackers for this run, and who knows what condition, I offer a M-N run for $100.00, even. Hard to find in any condition 1-10-- these are sharp! SPIDERMAN 1-50 is a close runner up in popularity to FF. And this run including AM.FANT 15 and the ANNUAL 1, all in cool M-N condition! A pride to any collector in the field, Rogofsky would want $97.25 at least. Mine: $67.50. STRANGE TALES 101-160 complete is another great run. See Johnny "Flame On!" as he fights the nemesis' of right, watch "The Thing" Bust Buns in the earlier #'s, and thrill to "Doc Strange" and his mystic ways later on. The set: $45.00 JOURNEY into MYSTERY 83-40 pits the exciting and popular hero Thor against all his enemies in uninterrupted battle. See him elude and beguile the best of the worst villains on Earth or in Asgard. Compare Rog's $77.90 to my $55.00. TALES of SUSPENSE 39-90 are not to be slighted. IRON MAN and Company would certainly not appreciate playing second fiddle. Gene Colon really takes over and does Iron Man up royal! Don't pay Howard R. $72.00 when these N-M's are $50.00 TALES to ASTONISH 27 + 35-95 is a relief to anybody who wants these. The ITA 27 is propably to roughest to come by of all, and included in this M-N run is a solid Fine copy of it good enough for anyone's pleasure. Not $82.50 for the group, as the dealers might ask. Pay just $50.00 for this whole bunch. AVENGERS 1-40 couldn't be left out, by Stan Lee's typewriter! Follow the old Avengers as they give the Batten to the new Avengers, who make no uncertain work of mopping up evil and/or bad doings. Priced at a good $32.50. X-MEN 1-35 are last, but of course not least. Nuff said: $27.50.
ALSO other special groups for the searching collector: HUMBUG,(Mad type humor comic) 1(VG),2(N),4-7 (All N), 9(G).. All for $12.00 lot price.
TERRY and the PIRATES (reprints newspaper strip, circa 1945) Issues 3, 4, 5, 6-16, 19-26 (All N or M) the lot $45.00. AND the final set to be offered, this very prestige group of MAD comic 1-10, all Fine-M for $50.00 all of them. A sure item that's worth its weight in laughs. EC's humor classic.

SPECIAL SECTION: A few special items are available which deserve separate consideration. First, Frank Frazetta's frist two WHITE INDIAN stories for the comics, in the original DURANGO KID's 1&2 where Dan Brand made his debut. Both N, both for $10 the pair. And also, a scarce, one-of-a-kind Frits item. How many times Is an FF original offered? It's a 3 panel daily Strip featuring Johnny Comet, measuring 17½" by 5", good panels, and autographed specailly by FF. $30.00.

In the remaining space, some OLDIES but GOLDIES PRICED REASONABLY: MARVEL MYSTERY 31(N),34(N)-$80; 37(VG)-$7,46(VG)-$6. SILVER STREAK 10, 11(battle)(VG+)-$130. HANGMAN 2(N)4(N)-$110; PEP30(G)-$5; TOP-NOTCH6-(VG)$10,7(G)$8; ZIP 2(VG+but nick out)-$12½; FLASH 4(G but last page 1 panel out)-$8; GREEN LANT 1 (M)-$40.00. FEATURE 58(VG)-$5;NATIONAL 18(VG+)-$5;BULLETMAN 3,4(VG)-$5; MASTER28(G)-$4;31(VG) -$4; WHIZ 18(G)-$6; EC;TFT ANNUALS 1(G)(Spine Magic Taped),2(VG) $100. CAPT. MIDNIGHT 1 (N) $17½. GANG BUSTERS 1,FIREHAIR1, MOVIE 1(1946),KID ETERNITY1-all F-M-$130. CRIME SUSP(EC) 4(G) $3.2(VG) $3. 11(VG) $2. 15(VG) $2. FRONTLINE 9 (F) $2½.

FANTASY ILLUSTRATED 8

With number eight, FANTASY ILLUSTRATED expands into interior color by presenting AT SEA--an unusual 12 page story printed in 2 colors, with art by Jim Gardner and breakdowns by Bill Spicer. Then, still more color underscores the first two dynamic pages of #8's GRAPHIC STORY REVIEW. :: George Metzger follows his triumphant FI debut (last issue's mind - bending MASTER TYME & MOBIUS TRIPP) with the sensational new series, KALEIDASMITH....12 pages of art and story designed for the discriminating reader who demands the new, the different, the unique-- and gets it with KALEIDASMITH. :: Richard Kyle is on hand with another installment of his highly acclaimed GRAPHIC STORY REVIEW column; and the editor continues his own series, NEW DIRECTIONS, with an essay on Charles Biro's TOPS, a little known comic magazine published in the late forties that was the first attempt at marketing an adult comic book. Rounding out the issue is an extra-length letters section featuring commentary from top fans and professionals. :: FI is a full size $8\frac{1}{2}$ x 11 magazine printed offset litho throughout with 4-color front and back covers and saddle-stitched wrap-around binding. A four-issue subscription is $3.00, single copies are 75¢; all mailed flat in manila envelopes. BACK ISSUES: there's a limited supply of #7 available, and #7 only...75¢ each, as long as the supply lasts. This classic issue contains the experimental MASTER TYME, Richard Kyle's definitive FANTASTIC FOUR essay, Mike Barrier's 20-page CAPTAIN EGG strip, front cover by Wallace Wood & Dan Adkins, and more!

Will you just look at all the fanzines advertised in this issue of RB-CC?Sooner or later there'll be as many fanzines as comics! It's a tough decision to many fans,especially one's with a limited budget.Many want to buy plenty of old and rare comics,and others are interested in fandom,and thus want fanzines.Some get both,it's hard to do either with so many fanzines around--alot GRUD ! Oh, they sound good!But once you open the pages of the sloppy ditto thing,you know! If you haven't guessed by now,this is a fanzine ad.I've published fanzines since 1961,so I've had experiance and seen alot of fanzines,and I know ernd-zines don't sell well.I think COMIC NEWS is a pretty good one.It's not Alter Ego,but it sure isn't Fan Scene.I ask you to see for yourself,it's the only way If you find anything wrong with it,you must let me know,so I can make CN into the kind of zine you like(love !).Briefly,COMIC NEWS # 4 has an offset cover by Bill DUBAY,my editorial,info on DCTC by Dave Esser,"Real Letter Page",Dick Tracy Index by Bernie Wermers,CRITICAL Look at Mighty Comics,by Bruce Williams and Paul Dryoff,Origin of Electrica-Lad by John Ryan and Frank Brunner,ads,gags,and more--Only 15¢ & a stamp.Why won't you try it? I have the largest assortment of back issue comics anywhere, I may not have all the numbers of each title but there is a very good chance that I can be of some help to most collectors. On the recent Marvel Group I havemost numbers and also have Mint Sets. Please list exact numbers of the items that you are missing and where possible I will quote you a group price, as well as individual prices per copy.

A FEW OF THE COMPANIES THAT I STOCK MANY NONEXISTANT Ace Comics,A.C.G.,Atlas,D.C.,Avon Comics Group,Dell Comics,E.C.,Famous Funnies,Farrell,Fawcett,Fiction House,Fox Features,Harvey,Hillman,Lev Gleason,Magazine Enterprizes,Premium Comics,Prize ComicsQuality,Standard, Star,Street & Smith,Superior,United Features Syndicate,Ziff-Davis,Tower and many little known companies. As each of these companies published many titles and many one shot titles it is impossible to list all my comics.

I would therefor apreciate it very much if you pinpoint the items down to the ones that you are actually interested inand I can give you a fa faster reply. I seldom have to refund money as I do have the items that I quote if picked up in a reasonable time after my answer.

'Tape Nut' Relives Radio

By JERRY BUCK

NEW YORK (AP) — Big time radio has been dead now for about 18 years, but it is not forgotten by those who grew up during its heyday.

One man who remembers it, and loves it, and even longs for its return, is Frank Buxton.

Buxton describes himself as a tape nut who has preserved thousands of hours of old radio programs for — well, certainly not for radio's return, but for the enjoyment of hearing the familiar voices just once more.

"Fred Allen was like a god to me when I was growing up," he said.

Buxton, a radio and television personality (he's host of "Discovery" on ABC-TV), and author of "Radio's Golden Age," will attempt to bring back a little of the old flavor when he teams up with Bill Cosby in January for a five-minute, five-day-a-week radio comedy program.

"Radio was a powerful force in our lives," he said. "It was the sole source of entertainment in our lives for many of us during the depression. And it was free during a time when we needed something free."

As an example of radio's force he cited Orson Welles' program on "The War of the Worlds," that in 1938 drove some people from their homes and convinced many others that the earth was being invaded by Martians.

"It was beautifully done. It was an absolute documentary approach," Buxton said. "'The war jitters at the time helped it go over."

HOW TO EXPLAIN IT

What is behind radio's mystique?

"I think for one thing the past is always remembered as better than it was," Buxton said. "And for another it's possible to recreate or find all the artifacts from the days we were growing up, from comic books to the old movie serials.

"But the one thing that's missing is radio. It's not possible to turn on your radio and recreate the past unless you're a tape nut like I am.

FRANK BUXTON
He Preserved Programs

"It's impossible to describe to a child what radio used to be like. Radio was a theater of the mind. You made the hero what you wanted him to be. No one had to paint a castle for you because you did it much better with your own imagination," he added.

Buxton also explodes a few of the myths about radio.

The story has long been repeated that Kato, the valet for "The Green Hornet," was Japanese until World War II, then turned overnight into a Filipino.

"That story's apocryphal," he said. "Kato was referred to as a Filipino almost two years before Pearl Harbor."

Another myth is that of Uncle Don, the host of a New York children's program, who told the kiddies goodby and then, thinking he was off the air, added, "I guess that'll hold the little ——."

"That never happened," Buxton said, "but after I wrote about the myth in my book I got three letters from different parts of the country saying it had happened to their own local versions of Uncle Don. I believe it's tricks of memory."
